

The RIDI Awards 2020

‘Celebrating best practice in recruiting disabled people with leading recruiters and employers.’

The annual RIDI Awards celebrate the very best of disability confident recruitment.

Bringing together leading change-makers in the sector, these free-to-enter awards bring experts and professionals together to share best practice and highlight the achievements of the year.

An outstanding panel of expert judges have the hard task of shortlisting from seven inspiring categories featuring those at the top of their game.

RIDI Award categories

Getting Started

Most inclusive recruitment campaign

Best candidate experience

Making a difference

Recruitment team of the year

Disability Confident

Disability Specialist

Awards open for nominations

If you are proud of your team, or the work a disability confident organisation is doing to further inclusive recruitment - now is the time to submit your nomination.

Deadline is Monday 9 March 2020

Submit your nominations via the RIDI website here

You can nominate yourself, and remember, it's free to enter!

EXPERT JUDGES

"There is so much untapped talent and a mountain of value amongst disabled people that organisations are simply not tapping in to. These Awards are fantastic at highlighting best practice to enable businesses to really leverage their diversity dividend".

Toby Mildon

Diversity and Inclusion
Architect, Mildon
Diversity and Inclusion Consultancy

"Recruitment companies have a critical role to play in closing the disability employment gap and enabling many more disabled people to achieve their potential. Entering the RIDI awards is a brilliant way of showcasing good practice and inspiring others."

Diane Lightfoot

CEO, Business
Disability Forum

Winners will be announced at a glittering ceremony on 4th June, generously hosted by Markel in central London

Gold Partners:

To find out more about becoming one of our category sponsors
please email:

 info@ridi.org.uk or call

 020 3740 4472